MEDIA RELEASE

L-R: Paul Dietrich, 1st Vice President, PKHBA; Mark Basciano, President, OHBA

LOCAL BUILDER RECEIVES AWARD

October 4, 2007 - Peterborough & The Kawarthas Home Builders Association (PKHBA) Vice President, Paul Dietrich, was named “Rooftopper of the Year” at last week’s Ontario Home Builders Association 2007 Annual Conference at the Blue Mountain Resort in Collingwood. Mr. Dietrich was presented the prestigious award for his outstanding contribution in recruiting new members to the local association.

He will take over the reigns as President of PKHBA at the October 17th Annual General Meeting of Members. Mr. Dietrich is the owner of Parkview Homes, a local home building company, and has sat on the Board of Directors of PKHBA for a number of years.

About Peterborough & The Kawarthas Home Builders Association

The Association has been “building pride” in the community since 1956. Peterborough & The Kawarthas Home Builders Association is a collection of true professionals that come together to further advance the New Home Construction and Renovation Industry in the area. Our members are networked not only locally, but provincially and federally as well. In 2006 about 2,535 direct and indirect jobs were generated by all housing activity taking place in the region, which amounted to $118 million dollars added to the economy.
